IMPORTANT GUIDANCE NOTES FOR APPLICANTS:

Disclosure of Material Facts

You must disclose all material facts, not only those covered by specific questions in this Form. Material facts are those which an insurer would regard as likely to influence the acceptance of your application. A good example is claims experience. If you fail to disclose a material fact, your insurance cover could become completely void. If you are in doubt as to whether any fact is material, you should disclose it.

Any other information not disclosed elsewhere
